

FRANK J VIELBA CV

Educated in Madrid, New York and London, Frank had from the start an international focus. His career includes technical and management positions with Coca-Cola, Schlumberger and W.S. Atkins. Executive consultant position with KPMG and executive director positions with I.C.I. PLC, Emerson Electric and Manpower.

As an independent management consultant and interim manager Frank has worked for multiple organizations including 3M, DSGI (formerly Dixons), Barclays Ventures, Bank of Scotland Integrated Finance, Lloyds TSB Development Capital, Crane Co., Interpublic Group and LGC.

Frank's core competences include:

Strategic and business transformation change, business and IT strategy development and implementation, M&A pre and post integration, strategic consulting, CIO Mentoring and Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) turnaround and implementation. He is fluent in Spanish, Italian and French and enjoys operating in multinational, multi-cultural companies. Frank is able to work in Government or private security areas and has a current SE security clearance permit.

Frank's industrial and market sector expertise include:

- Private equity
- Retail and distribution
- Media and communications
- Manufacturing (discrete, process and repetitive)
- Food and beverage
- Private Healthcare
- Recruitment services
- Professional services (consulting and mentoring)
- Recruitment services

Frank is a qualified professional mentor by the British Computer Society and his mentoring activities focus on mentoring and coaching senior IT managers.

Frank holds Chartered Engineer and MBA qualifications. He is a chartered fellow of the British Computer Society and a member of the Institute of Electrical Engineers and Institute of Directors.

Frank is also a management writer and conference speaker and has done research and written management articles including a book on the role of IT in Mergers and Acquisitions (see publications) and currently is working on his second book to be published by Wiley.